CARF International

Website
https://carf.org/accreditation/programs/behavioral-health/
Mission

To promote the quality, value, and optimal outcomes of services through a consultative accreditation process and continuous improvement services that center on enhancing the lives of persons served.

Name
Emily Hosea
Title
Managing Director, Behavioral Health and Opioid Treatment Programs
Email
ehosea@carf.org
Location

Tucson, AZ
United States

Description

An independent, nonprofit accreditor of health and human services, including Integrated Primary Care. Through accreditation, CARF assists service providers in demonstrating value by the quality of their services and meeting internationally-recognized organizational and program standards. CARF provides accreditation for Health Home programs, and beginning in July 2026, any programs offering BHI may seek accreditation for their integrated services through CARF's Integrated Primary Care Specialty Designation.

Geographic Reach National
Areas of BHI Support
Accredits
Parent Organization
CARF International
Website
https://carf.org/
Location

Tucson, AZ
United States

Organization Type
Non-Profit
Description

An independent, nonprofit accreditor of health and human services. Through accreditation, CARF® International assists service providers in demonstrating value by the quality of their services and meeting internationally-recognized organizational and program standards.